Les larmes de ton coeur

Un soir
Une impression étrange
Si tard
Est-ce démon ou ange ?

Soudain
Le mur se révèle
Une fin
D'une période si belle ?

Je n'ai pas pu ressentir
Ton âme en peine
J'espère que tu m'entends t'écrire
Que j'aimerais te faire rire

Peut-être
Penses-tu que je suis loin de tout ça
Sûrement pas

Lumière
Trouves-tu ton guide ton
Frère
Qui te conduira ?

Espoir
Tout est devenu si noir
Autour de toi
Pense que tout n'est pas perdu
Laisse faire l'inconnu

Sache
Que toutes nos lueurs
Sont là pour toi
Laisse couler sans effort
Les larmes de ton corps

Nous connaissons tous ce voile
Indélébile
Viens nous retrouver sans peur
Soigner les larmes de ton cœur
S'élever un jour meilleur...

But (Time Stands Still)

I felt I'd everything to win	Full time left
Couldn't stop smiling	My mind's obscured by no rest
But	Has my love been trapped from nowhere
Now I've realised the play	I can only try to wait
	But time stands still
Sweetheart let me make you know
How I think about you	Love spent away
But	The hole in my heart keeps emptying
I try not to bother you again	When I think about you and him
	I can only try to sing
Staying here	To help me let out
How long will I feel this way ?	This whole deep obsession
But time stands still	I wait for the sign to begin
	But time stands still
I try to convince myself
That you're here for me
But
I keep feeling alone
I was told time will heal me
Helping my heart beat
How long will it take me to restore
You are the one that I need
The hole in my heart keeps growing
When I think about you and him
I can only try to wait
But time stands still
Day after day shall I find some time to break free ?
But
My carpe diem has left
I know that you will Do your best to make me feel I'm real
But
My nothing and my everything are away

Inside a killing mind

He: Tell me the reasons why
He: Tell me, where did you fly ?
He: Trust me, I can help you
He: Just if you speak to me about you

She: Hear me, I didn't mean to do it
She: That's not me, I couldn't have done this insanity
She: Trust me, I love her like me
She: She's in my heart forever but I did it

He: Don't close your eyes
He: Watch the sunrise
He: You can cry for her too
He: Don't try to escape this world of fear you brought to you

She: That night, we were playing
She: Tonight, I'm wondering
She: Whether we were looking
She: For something

She: I'd like to cry
She: Did we ? Would I ?
He/She: Her beauty won't shine anymore
He: Do you really think it is the only reason for ?

She: Let me remember our crazyness, our illness
She: My body was there, without any spirit
She: We are just kidding, I'm going out of my mind
She: A knife in my bag, hitting a face, killing a goddess

He: Now you know you killed that girl
He: Murdered her beauty, destroyed her life
He: Now you know you will remember
He: Your unconscious will keep her in mind

He/She: Forever

...God be crying

Time passes by World spins around

All in all, events fall
After all, there's no control

Men dance and sing
Such desperate means

Swimming against the flow
They are designed to drown

All in all, time's leading
After all, souls keep bleeding

All in all, the end is near
After all, it's just a tear

You own sky

Take off little fowl, your life began again
When you chose another way
My love will never stop shining in the sky you fly away

Fly young lullaby
Follow your own sky
Shine dear butterfly
Please do not say goodbye

When I was sad you came to me
With a thousand smiles you gave to me free
My shoulder will lie under your wing
Together we'll fly over your sea

Young lullaby
Follow your own sky
Shine dear butterfly

Fly
Free your mind
Don't cry
Find
Your way to the bright side
It's time

Young lullaby
Follow your own sky
Shine dear butterfly

Through the clouds

Way too long

Life goes away
Time flies each day
No more moment
I have been waiting for so long
Way too long
For you

The touch of your skin
The feel of everything
Finally
The moment I was waiting for so long
Way too long
With you

Waiting's over
Now is time
To live for long Way way long
With you

Under the storm

Not long ago
You felt the void inside
Now on your own
In the storm you fly

Keep on flying
Keep on flying
Keep on

Feelings come and go
In the core tears you cried
Void overflows
Until you come to decide

Keep on flying
Into the storm
Keep on flying
Deploy your wings
Dry up your fears
Fly through and breathe

Keep on flying
Keep on flying
Unleash your wings
Breathe

Through the clouds

My bird is lost
The sky is now her maze
My heart goes to
Her flying through the clouds

Follow me in the night
Let me reach the stars with you

The sky is now so dark
My bird is lost
Looking for sunshine
Through the clouds

Follow me through the night
Let me reach the light for you

Follow me until the end of night
Fly with me towards the blue sky

My bird is lost
The sky is now her maze
Let me find you
Let me fly you through the clouds

Oxygen

My all
My every thought I would dream about
My all
An eternity worth of instant light

The precious sense of breeze
Oxygen for my feelings

I know
Every thought you would dream about
I know
Eternity means a million lights

The precious sense of breeze
Oxygen in your dreams

Life lies beyond
The clouds in your sky
Clouds in your sky
Let us fly and reach the light

My all
My every thought I would dream about
My all
An eternity worth of instant light

Let down

His soul is crying
Once more
From the everlasting
Sorrow

And he feels let down
Let down below
Hope is shining dark
Glowing far ago

Her soul is crying
So deep
So broken hearted Within

And she feels let down
Let down so low
Help is nowhere to be found
Living by the hole

Their souls are crying
At once
Their fear of bleeding
To dance

And one day they'll let go
Everything behind
Finally taking off
Flying from the ground

Our soul is crying
Unnoticed
From all the suffering
In silence

Son of Apollo

Landing on the dust that no one ever felt
Climbing down the stairs to become a new Man
Every eye on earth staring still at my moves
Until I do

We are here where no man ever should have been Still bringing our human banner and frontier
What does "us" even mean today now we're here
Until we go

Have you learned a thing Son of Apollo ?
Is Moonlight shining in its softening glow ?
Mankind seem so thin as I step forward
And say...

This small step every breath awaits
A victory, the greatest as they'd say
I look up to this pale blue dot
We call Home

Will we learn a thing as we testify ?
Earth is like an inn we may not survive
Only darkness lays past the living air
Before my eyes

Have you learned a thing Son of Apollo ?
I would like to see your world before I go
Have we gone again or is there nothing left
But memories
But memories

Building the sky

Inert steam
Hydrogen
Altogether just falling

Million years
Infinite tears
Forming a star no eye can see

Elements, consequence
Building the sky above us
Gravity, symmetry
Light getting birth, breaking through the dark

Speeding up
Warming up
Finding their mate through the tunnel

Helium
Overcome
Bringing balance, igniting the star

Elements, consequence
Factory, all might be Intricacies of all the Unknown

Building the sky above us
Giving life to the universe
Sparkle of light for a billion years
Birth of our soul, source of every tear

Turn around

You never know when the final word is spoken out loud
You never know when the time will come to walk different grounds
To walk different grounds...

"Goodbye my love" are the words that I won't tell you now
I'm too proud to fear to be left behind, but you'll turn around
I can't help but hope you turn around

I walk away because you bring me down
I must be brave and I won't turn around
Turn around

I promise you i'll make you become the happiest bride
All I can do is all I can try, i'll step out my pride
Please turn around

All those promises I heard too many times
All the pain you've made to your "beloved wife"

I won't turn around
I won't turn around
I won't turn around

Hey sister are you coming home tonight ?
Have you walked away ?
I'm waiting for you and we'll make it right
Let's begin a new day
I'm waiting for you today
I'm waiting for you maybe

On her own

She arrives a bit early
Well, Friends are running late
The place is empty
She's sitting down with no mate

Her mind is clearer than most of men's Tonight she takes over
She won't sleep in her bed
on her own

Too easy for her
To pick every now and then
The nicest pretender
And taste the feeling again

Her life gets clearer among new friends
Tonight she takes over
on her own

Tonight may be the start of a new best time of your life
Look up, pull yourself together to make an eye contact
She might not be that much into you but you'd be alright
You just have to take the chance to not let her go back home
on her own

Sunshine

Your life's been so obscured by clouds lately
Future felt so distant in the dark

Do you feel the sunshine ?
It is not that far away
Carefully hidden from your eyes your eyes.

You've been strong to pass it all away
A lucid dream that won't leave you awake

Soon the sunshine will eventually come to you
Washing the shades off your eyes and go

Moving forward you will see there is much more waiting for you
Ride the life and breathe the open air you finally broke through

The sunshine is now peeking right at you
Burning your skin with a glow a glow

You might embrace the promise, be free again flying through storms or Or just look up in the wind smile and be grateful for the glowing sky

Washing the shades off your eyes
Skin burning under glowing sky

Seasons

Winter

Do you feel alive among the dead ?
Do you think you're right and you're the same ?

Climbing down along the dreamer
Slowly drifting into the winter

Can you wake up when you're not asleep ?
The puppet master makes what you believe

Sitting down deep into forever
Slowly waking to the winter

Sun arises colder than despair
You and I and everyone are scared

Walking on the bridge of the fallen
Slowly deafening the winter

Building ice of knowledge
Breathing air made of clay
One day you'll remember
How to come through the winter

Do you feel alive among the dead ?

Climbing up along the dreamer
Slowly living through the winter

Spring

A splitted path yet we will always belong
Never the past will return
From so long ago

I don't know where the future lies
I don't know if we could have suffered through all of our lies
I don't know if we could have been better off again
But now i'm not afraid of the spring

So the decision's been made
I did not know i was so ready to reach the end

I don't know if the future will bite
I don't know if we can befriend and keep on holding tight
I don't know if we could have been better off again
But now i'm looking forward to the spring

I'll never fully understand what drove us apart
As you didn't even know
Now i'm Moving on embracing the life I will make up for myself

I don't know if we could have been better off again
I don't know if we can befriend and win in the end
Now i feel free to go wherever i feel i belong
I hope the spring will last for long
I hope the spring will last for long
I hope the spring will last

Summer

Moving through the unknown, two blindfolded souls
Are destined to join before the break of dawn

When he opens his eyes as she opens her heart leaving for the blue sky
As Their worlds collide the seasons slide and summer dances

Who could breach this diamond suspended in time
Lost in their hearts into the stars wide awake in dreamy night
Feeling lost and found

Up memory lane
Feeding upon every breath alive again
Heartbeats synchronize and seasons slide as summer dances

Waiting for the feeling of today just being Complete now and ready for another day
Living it up to summer dances

Fear shaped blue

Make a difference

Why not keep dreaming for a change
Let our love flow through this time and space

Tonight
Let's make a difference
Let's shine through the dark

We might all make a difference
and be one

You have more power than your fears
Love is a hard way
Yet the only there is

Tonight
Let's make a difference
Keep shining in the dark

meet our angel
and be one

Let's make a difference
Live the dream we all seek

It's time to wake up
Remember love is all

Sometimes it burns

Feeling left on the road
No right to be this sour
Emotions are yours alone
Open the gates and let them go
Let them flow

Sometimes it hurts
Sometimes it minds
Sometimes it bursts
Darkness from light
Sometimes it churns
Fear and desire
Sometimes it burns
Sometimes it cries inside

Even you knew before
The stream of events breaks you all
Triggered a panic waterfall

Sometimes it hurts
Sometimes it blinds
Sometimes you can't just hide in disguise
Sometimes it blurs
Will and denial
Sometimes it burns

In the depth of this Time
In the depth of your mind
In the loneliness left lost in decline
You'll find a light that'll guide you outside

As it touches your soul
As it shows you the road
You begin to come back from where you've gone
Warming the darkened cold void that had shaken up your Heart

In the depth of this Time

You find a light that catches your eye
It touches your soul
It shows you the road
You begin your way to come back home
Follow the warmth calling to breathe

Fear shaped blue (shaking in silence)

Welcome to the dark place again

Hello

Is there anybody out there ?

So many tries to fit in

Be with you

Weaving away being fake and true

Walking the Line, I was awoken in display

I lingered enough for tears to shed

I'm breaking the walls as I'm collapsing into Shade

Shaking in silence, senses led astray

There are no trees on my landscape

Anymore

Should I reach out and call for help ?

Maybe an angel has the gift to appease the storm and bring me home to you

As I'm running from fear shaped blue

Life is burning as I curl up into shame

To long were my inners forgotten

The smoke and mirrors I have left to educate

Shaking in silence, all is left to say

Flying away into the clouds of my dismay

Washing my tears up in the rain

Seeking the light leading to the blue sky again

B-sides

I'm with you

The red Sun set
Behind the mighty horizon
Where late Eve turns into day the shadows drowned
In this beautiful Darkness
As stars enlight our breath

And i'm with you
I'm with you
I'm with you
I get to you
I'm breaking through
I'm with you

Watching Time going by
The sheer void of my absence
Triggers something unknown whispers going blind
The sounds of a silence
That sinks and grows
And falls

But i'm with you
I'm with you
I'm with you
Let me reach you
let's trust us too
i'm with you

I'm with you
I'm with you too
In the set of times and spaces
That's given to our beings
We'll make it through
For as long as we are shining
Trust and truth
Trust and truth

One life in the dawn

One life for living
Let's open the door
One life for dreaming
Embracing the dawn

Let's embrace the dawn
Let's live for our own
And learn breathe love
One life in the dawn

One life for smiling
Never feel so low
One life for breathing
The air feels so warm

Let's embrace the dawn
Let's live for our own
And learn breathe love
One life in the dawn

One life just for today
A sparkle for our heart
One life to live again
And never be to die
And never be to die

One life for loving
The right and the wrong
One life for feeling
The whole human soul

Let our hearts unite
Let's make love tonight
For we don't know
One life in the dawn

Lunatic

I got millions of thoughts dancing around in the dark
The answers I seek keep hiding behind

I got a bunch of questions I keep asking you about
Maybe someday I'll manage to hear voice of your heart

Lunatic in the light
of sunny morning
Lunatic in the wild freedom

I got no choice I got no fear unless the ones you have
I gotta say my only dream is to make you the one

Lunatic in the light
of sunny morning
Lunatic in the wild

Lunatic is my way of feelings now
Lunatic is how my feelings try to sort out
Lunatic is my way of desire

Millions of thoughts dancing around
Answers I seek keep hiding... 'till I fight

Driving

She woke up at 6am	She's on her road to happiness feeling longing to truck her way	We shall keep for us the sadness throughout	And wish her last day	Her the best

Spilling their coffee by the wheel [pont sifflé]
Singing along the way they feel somehow	She's driving driving today
like yesterday	Left with no more to say Bringing her smile to new
Driving her own life her way	People she will love too
Trucking her own life her way	Thanks

She's driving, driving, oh driving, driving along her last day
She's driving, driving, oh driving, driving towards her own way

She will not expect all the cheers
The emotion the burst of tears from all the ones she fed

And now nothing will be the same
As the day's coming to an end
Relieved
"So goodbye then"

Driving towards a new day
Trucking to a new place to stay

She's driving, driving, oh driving, driving along her last day
She's driving, driving, oh driving, driving towards a new place to stay

Smiling as she drives
Thinking of good times
Laughing chuckling all at once
Driven by her fate
Hoping for a clean slate
She just can't afford to stay

Simple mistake

The last lunch
Just a few hours to wait
Taste of food no longer matter
He hopes it will not be too long
How is life going away ?
He will follow the green mile to his own end

What is that feeling ?
The specter of the death
Begins to play the Scene

Sacrifice
Against insanity
Paying the cost of his life
To kill that penalty

The last time
He can open his own eyes
He only have the right to wonder
Will he see devil's sign ?
Shall he go to paradise ?
Hear the sound of the last walk to his last breath

He's ready to die
For the aim of his life
His innocence will rise

Sacrifice
Against insanity
Paying the cost of his life
To kill that penalty

She arrives to late
The Scene has just been played
This wasn't his fate
Just a simple mistake

Sacrifice
Against insanity
Paying the cost of his life
To kill that penalty

Hero of war

Hidden, looking for
The next item, it's just one more
Suddenly, the aim comes to me
Let me act

Observing that new victim
Preparing to play my scene
To feel, to hear
To sense the fear all around
Makes me act

As a hero of war
Just open the afterlife door
Just a button
No I don't kill anyone
Bullets are on their own

So close now I can hear them
First time aiming at a woman
Do I have the choice ?
Listening to her voice makes me doubt

As a hero of war
I should push the trigger now
God who am I to choose the one to shoot down on my own ?

No longer a hero of war
I prefer to be a traitor
I have broken free, no matter who would kill me

Kill me free

Les bonbons

Bientôt 16h45 le goûter se passait si bien
Sortie de nulle part en un instant elle vient demander gentiment les yeux brillant

"Papa ! On va acheter des bonbons ?
S'il te plaît meilleur papa du monde !
Allez, t'façon c'est moi qui paye on y va ste plaît ste plaît ste plaît ste plaît ste plaît ste plaît.

Avant j'avais des principes, maintenant j'ai des enfants
Je réfléchis à ma stratégie, cette fois je tiendrai bon Sûrement

Allez ok pour cette fois
Déjà prête ? Bizarre à l'habitude
Pour que tu enfiles une chaussette
Il faut bien 18 minutes

Cette fois soit raisonnable
Pas plus de 25 kilo
Et essaye d'en garder
Un ou deux pour ton fréro

"Papa ! on va acheter des bonbons ?
S'il te plaît best papa de la terre"
Mais non cette fois je tiendrai bon
Enfin du moins je l'espère

"Papa ! On va acheter des bonbons ?
Allez ça fait trop longtemps !
On ne le dira pas à maman !
S'il te plaît meilleur papa du monde"

Fear burning out
Tears coming out dry

On the road to my next life
Could it be the end tonight
I keep myself from thinking about what could
And what could lie back

Fear burning out
Tears coming out
Feelings inside out
Hello my love. I'm here now

0.0.1 Breath

I'm walking away in the night
My soul is slowly drifting into the
I don't want to die
I don't want to die now

I'm breathing away through the fire
My body's only pain, no more desire
I'm ready to die
I'm ready to die now

Waiting for the time when to feel no

I am dreaming away into the light
I hope everything is lost with no co
I'm sorry my love
I'm sorry to leave you now

Wait(ing for the time when to feel n
(Can't you make some more ?)

Pain just eat my soul
(Please keep pain away)

I'm breathing through my soul
(Has time come this day ?)
Freeing myself now
Pain is gone

0.0.1 Speak

Sing for me
Pray for me
Come for me
What could come next
All I can do is

Sing out loud
To reach you there
Sing out loud
Hear me my love

Speak to me
Feel me
In your body
I'm right here
All I can do is

Sing out loud
To ease my pain
Sing out loud
Again

0.0.1 Sing

Sing again
Sing till the end

Hello my love

Covers

Nobody knows you when you're down and out

Falling home

Norwegian Wood

Used to us

When I scroll back through our recent days
I try to understand
How we could forget
We made a promise to one another that nothing would Ever break what we had

Now we never talk
 when we fall apart
We never talk
 when we fall apart

We pretend we're ok
Surrounding ourselves with one-way
Friendships and so-called friends

I know we got used to new us
And I don't want to be there
I don't want to be there
Where we are

I know we got used to new life
And I don't want to be there
No, I don't want to be there
Where we are

Silence fallen between
All the doors are unlocked
And the words unsaid
And we're still afraid of time
Started to keep ourselves
At a distance that we could control
Not too close, not too far

Now we never talk when we fall apart
We just never talk when we fall apart

We pretend we're ok
By filling up our inner space
With little hates and so-called love

I know we got used to new us
And I don't want to be there
I don't want to be there
Where we are

I know we got used to new life
And I don't want to be there
No, I don't want to be there
Where we are

I know we got used to new us
And I don't want to be there
I don't want to be there
Where we are

I don't want to be there
I don't want to be there
Where we are

So walk away with me

Time travellers

Bridge across forever

We all need some light

Some people think
Think they have none
They might as well stay down
Running in circles
Like bulls in a ring
'Til the sword finds it's way down
While the creep beats the rap on appeal
And the cop who can't stop
Shows the kids how to steal

And we all need some light now
We all need some light now
Yes, we all need some light now
Turn on your light and wash the darkness away

Hey you on the brink
Waiting to fall
To become human surplus
The movie's still shooting
You might still get the role
And man it's all just a circus
But the clown left town long ago
Maybe he'll come back and give us a show

'Cause we all need some light now
Yes, we all need some light now
Turn on your light and wash the darkness away

We all need some light now
Yes, we all need some light now
We all need some light right now

Are you waiting for the sword to find its way down
Remember when the sun was in your eyes
'Cause, we all need some light now
Turn on your light and wash the darkness away

San tropez

As I reach for a peach, slide a rind down behind
The sofa in San Tropez
Breakin' a stick with a brick on the sand
Ridin' a wave in the wake of an old sedan
Sleepin' alone in the drone of the darkness
Scratched by the sand that fell from my love
Deep in my dreams and I still hear her callin'

\If you're alone, I'll come ho-ho-home"

Backward and homebound, the pigeon, the dove
Gone with the wind and the rain, on an airplane
Born in a home with no silver spoon
I'm drinking champagne like a good tycoon
Sooner than wait for a break in the weather
I'll gather my far-flung thoughts together
Speeding away on the wind to a new day

If you're alone, I'll come ho-ho-home

And I pause for a while by a country stile
And listen to the things they say
Diggin' for gold in a hole in my hand
Open a book, take a look at the way things stand
And you're leading me down to the place by the sea
I hear your soft voice calling to me
Making a date for later by phone

And if you're alone, I'll come ho-ho-home

Happy returns

Hey brother, happy returns
It's been a while now
I bet you thought that I was dead
But I'm still here, nothing's changed
Nothing's changed

Hey brother, I'd love to tell you
I've been busy
But that would be a lie
'Cause the truth is
The years just pass like trains
I wave but they don't slow down
Don't slow down

Hey brother, I see the freaks and Dispossessed on day release
Avoiding the police
I feel I'm falling once again
But now there's no one left to catch me

Hey brother, I feel I'm living in parentheses
And I've got trouble with the bills
Do the kids remember me?
Well, I've got gifts for them
And for you much sorrow
But I'm feeling kind of drowsy now
So I'll finish this tomorrow
